Rugby History St Ives Saints U7's, Wahroonga Tigers, Barker College, Barker Old Boys, kings Old Boys (I don't quite know why), Newcastle Uni, St Andrews College, Gordon Rugby, then Pirates for past 15 years with some random games for teams like the dubbo Roos tour of ireland thrown in.
favourite pirate moment: playing for the jockstraps in an international friendly against the Australain womens rugby team (the g-strings) which allows me to claim a test cap. Or watching Damien Lewis tackle a young Jonah Lomu in full flight when the Country u19's played the kiwi u19's at stuart park about a decade ago. or winning the sawtell sevens for the first few times with stuey robinson when we really had no idea what we were doing, but we somehow managed to knock off some sydney club teams and a fijian team, and people like franky walsh got to show just how good at footy there were.
